

Integrated Management System (IMS) Policy

Integrating quality, health, safety & environment management systems into an Integrated Management System (IMS), Cofreth (M) commits to provide high performance Facilities Management and Energy Services without compromising safety & health of all stakeholders and uphold environment sustainability

Our commitment

- 1) To deliver timely, clean, safe and best value services inclusive of providing an annual improvement plan to customers
- 2) Compliance with legal and other requirements that are applicable to IMS
- 3) Prevent occurrence of poor service, incident, work-related ill health and environmental pollution as identified under HIRADC, EAIA and Risk Register
- 4) Instill awareness, develop effective leader, maintain competent and effective workforce through structured training
- 5) Continually Improve IMS through audits and management reviews

This policy aligning with strategic direction of company and will be revised as necessary and communicated to all stakeholders

Ir. ONG CHING LOON
Managing Director

Date: 1.6.2017